

Our 2nd Annual Heil's Social Skills and Community Summer Camp

Who: Students with special needs grades K-6

*Please contact us to discuss specific medical needs for your child to determine if they can be accommodated.

Camp is taught and organized by Aaron and Marie Heil, two local Special Needs Teachers with combined teaching experience of 32 years with students having emotional disturbances, Autism, Down Syndrome, and Physical Needs.

When: 8:15 am-12 Noon
June 22-24
June 29-July 1
July 20-July 22

Where: Carroll Middle School
Transportation is provided by parents.

Cost: $75 a session which includes snack and art activities. Community outings generally range $2-$10 based on event and community donations.

Join us for three days of planned group and individual social skills training on various topics. Students will have an opportunity to interact and role play situations and games with other students that have similar needs, as well as, neuro typical friends. We will also have opportunity for crafts and meal prep.

Mon & Tue: We will follow the social skills curriculum and plan for next outing.

Wed: Parents will be responsible for transportation to determined community settings.
