Phillip's Wish is a non-profit organization that was founded by a little boy who saw a need in the world and decided to do something about it.

As a result of his father's mental illness, Phillip and his mom, Cyndi Bunch, were introduced to a world that broke their hearts.

After searching the streets of Fort Worth looking for Phillip Sr. they were overwhelmed by how many homeless people they saw.

The objective of Phillip's Wish is to restore the basic right to food, shelter, education and medical care to the homeless, mentally ill, individuals afflicted with substance abuse, and families facing the unexpected.
